HE WAS LAST SEEN IN GRAND CENTRAL STATION.

Accepted Theory is that He Was Lured to Death by Thieves Who Were Attracted by Jewelry He Wore.

"As a relative of Arthur Baxter Kingsley, and as the attorney for his family, I can say that we have given up all hope of ever finding him dead or alive," said Alexander T. Mason to-day. "We are convinced that he is dead. Whether he was kidnapped and put to death or whether he was murdered by thieves who afterward disposed of his body, I am not in a position to state. None of us believes that he took his own

"He is dead," is the statement made by his brother, his cousin and all his selatives and friends.

Seldom has there been a more mysterious disappearance in the history of New Fork. Young Kingsley had every thing to live for. He was rich. He was contented in his home life. His friends were counted by his acquaintances, and he had no love affair that would have made him end his own life, He simply started for his home in Rutland, Vt. and seemed to drop from the face of the earth.

Many Stories Told.

Of course there have been all sorts of sories told the family of young Kingsley was the sort that would be gard.

Zella Ameer. Who Escaped from Russian City with Wife and Children After Massacre, Takes Out First Papers.

Zella Ameer, of No. 44 Hester street, who arrived in New York three months ago from Kishineff, has received his first naturalization papers He is the first one of the Russian refugees to announce his intention of be coming a citizen of the United States. Ameer is unable to speak English Ameer is unable to speak English, but through an interpreter he told of his experiences during the riots.

"I have a wife and eight children, four boys and four girls," he said. "I had a good business as a merchant in Kishineff and owned my own home. The warnings of danger came too late to allow me to save surthing and he to allow me to save anything, and be sides having my house confiscated l lost about $500 worth of goods.

"During the first two days of the manusacre we all stayed in the cellar. My home was robbed, the windows broken and neighbors on either side of me were killed.

"I had two revolvers, and had we been discovered! would have killed my children rather than see them tortured by the fiends who attacked my people. "As soon as the mob stopped slaying the Jews we went to live with friends. After two months I secured a pass from the Governor to go to Berlin. Then we ame to New York.

"I know the rioters would never have jared to do what they did had they not been promised safety by Government officials."

A subscription of $200 has been raised in this city to help establish Ameer in business.
